20 Wed @ 7 PM: 'Mentors in the Garden of Life' Colleen Plimpton's memoir is a beautifully written story about her childhood spent on a farm in upstate New York. The countryside surrounding Rochester provides the setting where readers will meet stern grandparents, a loving great aunt, and a young uncle, whose death made a deep impression upon his niece. Acclaimed author, gardener, columnist, lecturer.

22 Fri @ 7 PM: Paulsen, Baker and Garvey Concert @ WC High School Auditorium

Tickets available @ Scottsville Free Library and through Rotary and WC Interact Club.

Adults $8, Students $5, Free for Children 6 and younger

Professionally performing together since 1974, Paulsen, Baker & Garvey's three-part harmonies include music from the Kingston Trio, James Taylor, the country sounds of Waylon & Willie, and great rock & roll from the Beatles to the Eagles. Great family entertainment! Proceeds to benefit the WC Drama Club, The Scottsville Free Library and The Rotary Club.
